Transfer of Copyright

To be signed by the author or, in the case of multiple authorship, by at least one of the authors who agrees to inform the others, or, in case of a work made for hire, by the employer. The signed statement must be received by the Hon. Secretary secretary@iscmns.org before the contribution can be accepted for publication.

Copyright to the contribution by _____________________________________

Submitted under the title or identified as

______________________________________________________________

is hereby transferred to The International Society for Condensed Matter Nuclear Science effective if and when the contribution is accepted for publication.

For authors who are employees of the United States Government, the transfer of copyright is understood to be effective only to the extent that such copyright is transferable.

The authors explicitly reserve the following rights, provided explicit acknowledgment is made of their initial appearance in ISCMNS publication(s):

- All proprietary rights other than copyright, such as patent rights.
- The right to use all or part of this contribution in future works of their own such as lectures, reviews, textbooks, or reprint books, digital media.
- The right to publish the contribution in any officially printed published conference proceedings.
- The right to make copies for the authors' own teaching use.
- The right to use figures and tables in future publications.

Signature ___________________            Date: _________________

Institution: _______________________________________________

Address: